Enjoy a happy, carefree holiday—revel in the scenic grandeur and the eternal romance of the Rockies. Let Rocky Mountain Tours arrange your trip and eliminate all the responsibilities of enquiries, reservations and the many details essential for a perfect vacation. You will find listed here many glorious mountain trips, a variety of fascinating itineraries, specially planned to help you really see the mountains!

BUSES WITH Plexiglass TOPS

The ultimate in modern equipment offers patrons of Rocky Mountain Tours the opportunity of seeing the splendor of the Canadian Rockies while travelling in complete comfort.

Smooth-riding, 25-passenger buses with air-foam cushions are equipped with plexiglass tops which afford, in addition to all-weather protection, an unobstructed view of the mountain scenery. Plexiglass tops are also a feature of the smallest buses, 10-passenger Cadillacs.

In all buses a public address system brings the drivers' comments to the personal attention of every passenger. The drivers, themselves, are schooled before the tourist season opens so that they will be familiar with both the landmarks of the area and the Indian legends which have become associated with these natural wonders. You will find the drivers courteous and obliging and ready to assist you in making your holiday a pleasant one. All are Government Licensed motor vehicle operators.

PRIVATE CAR SERVICE

Rocky Mountain Tours presents a specialized private car service for those travellers who wish the exclusiveness of independent tours, or desire an itinerary not available on the regular schedules. For this service, up-to-date limousines with full-view plexiglass tops may be reserved. The attendance of competent and courteous chauffeurs is guaranteed.

All schedules listed in this folder, may be used as a basis for private car itineraries, there being no restrictions on stop-overs at Banff, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake or Jasper.

All private car service charges are based upon the rate of five single bus fares, the exception being Calgary to Banff, Banff to Calgary, for which the private car rate is $40.00 each way.

THE SEASON

The season for All-Expense Tours listed in this folder is June 1st to September 30th, which season is governed by the opening and closing dates of the Lake Louise hotels. Before and after this period special tours can be arranged with accommodation reserved at one of Banff's all-year-round hotels.

ACCOMMODATION

The All-Expense Tours include standard accommodation with bath at hotels. Superior accommodation may be obtained upon request. Due to the fact that all hotels become heavily booked during July and August, it is imperative that reservations be made as early as possible to avoid disappointment.

REPRESENTATIVES

When arriving at Jasper or Waterton Lakes you may obtain information desired from the Transportation Desk at your hotel. At Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise or Field our own representative will meet you upon your arrival.

STOP-OVERS

In all itineraries of All-Expense Tours the maximum amount of transportation is involved. For some this may prove too strenuous. Stop-overs may be included at any point.

Banff

In the broad Valley of the Bow, 4,532 feet above sea level, the town of Banff is situated just east of the Vermilion Lakes. It is surrounded, but not enclosed, by many imposing mountain peaks—Mt. Rundle, 9,838 feet, Mt. Cascade, 9,840 feet, the Fairholme and the Borgeau Ranges. Banff National Park, embracing 2,585 square miles of mountain, valley, forest, lake and stream, is Canada's oldest National Park.

Main Street, Banff

Banff is a delightful mountain resort with all the comforts, recreational facilities and the amenities of life enjoyed in much more populous districts. Beautifully appointed hotels, excellent dining rooms and restaurants, and smart shops cater to the everyday needs of the travelling public. An all-year-round resort, the town of Banff has facilities for summer vacationers and winter skiers.

In the vicinity of the town are a great number of beauty spots and points of interest that attract thousands of visitors every season. The curative Sulphur Hot Springs, the Buffalo Park, the strange upthrust fingers of the Hoodoos, Johnson's Canyon, Lake Minnewanka, the beautiful Lake Louise, the Great Divide, Moraine Lake and Yoho Park are annually visited by travellers from all over the world who come like pilgrims to this mecca of mountain beauty.

BANFF General Drive

For the visitor whose stay must be brief, the general drive of Banff gives a thrilling, comprehensive picture of the district. From your hotel in Banff the drive passes through the shopping and residential districts. The first stop beyond the town is at the Buffalo Paddocks where these mammoth animals may be studied at close range in their native environment. Then, as you circle Tunnel Mountain, the drive offers many panoramas of the surrounding valley and peaks afforded by this 1,000-foot elevation in the middle of Bow Valley. A visit to the Park Administration Gardens, the Hot Sulphur Springs, the Fish Hatchery and Bow Falls are all included. In two short hours you have seen many of the points of interest which have made Banff famous.

Lake Minnewanka

About 9 miles from Banff, lying in a deep valley between spectacular mountains, is the beautiful leaf-shaped Lake Minnewanka. This lake is about 14 miles long, the largest in the National Parks. The 36-mile tour, a combined motor trip and one-hour cruise on the Mediterranean-blue waters of Lake Minnewanka, makes one of the most delightful and memorable tours in the vicinity of Banff.

Banff to Lake Louise

This thrilling motor trip between two of the most famous resorts in the Canadian Rockies, covers 40 miles of the most exciting scenic highway on the continent. Along this route you will see the Vermilion Lakes and majestic Mount Rundle, fascinating Mt. Hole-in-the-Wall, Pilot Mountain, Mt. Ball, eternally snow-capped Mt. Temple and rugged Mt. Eisenhower. You will also obtain an excellent view of the constellation grouped around Lake Louise and the distant delicate silhouette of the Ten Peaks. Along the highway you may encounter deer, elk, moose, bear, sheep or goat.

BANFF Twilight Drive

Imagine driving through the slowly fading peaceful twilight, the mountains veiled in dusky shadow, tipped with crimson fire by the setting sun. Our twilight drive will show the beavers at work in Vermilion Lakes, will take you to the feeding grounds of the bears, and as a climax visits the Ski Lodge on Mt. Norquay, 1,300 feet above the village. Here the visitor may take advantage of Banff spectacular new chair-lift. From far above the valley you may watch the gold fade from the surrounding peaks, the darkness of night creep down the Valley of the Bow broken only by the twinkling lights of the village of Banff.

ADVANTAGES OF ALL-EXPENSE TOURS

In the last decade All-Expense Tours have become increasingly popular with the experienced travelling public. This plan for travelling has many very real advantages.

Firstly, the itinerary suggested for each tour has been designed by a person familiar with every detail of the terrain to be visited, and has been specially arranged to eliminate the troubles and confusion experienced by even the most seasoned traveller in a strange place. All-Expense tours provide completely care-free pleasure during your visit here.

Secondly, when you purchase an All-Expense Tour from your agent, you purchase a guarantee of superior service. No longer are you a single traveller among thousands, but a guest sent to us by your Agent to whom we are responsible. We appreciate your patronage as an individual, but even beyond that, as we must please and continue to please an ever increasing number of visitors who have been advised to accept our services by Agents everywhere, it is inevitable that preference must be given to those holding Coupons drawn on Rocky Mountain Tours.

We offer 43 different All-Expense Tour arrangements embracing 1, 2 or 3 nights' stop-overs. If you do not find in these the exact itinerary you have in mind, we will be very pleased to arrange any tour program you wish. Please co-operate by advising your Agent which tour you have chosen and which type of hotel accommodation you desire at the earliest possible date. This will facilitate matters greatly in making preparation for your visit here.

LAKE LOUISE TO COLUMBIA ICEFIELD

Along the Ridge of the Continent, amid great towering peaks, and skirting vast glaciers, this tour brings you to the largest body of ice south of the Arctic—Columbia Icefield. As a one-day excursion from Lake Louise, with luncheon at the Chalet and a visit to the Icefield, or as part of the trip between Lake Louise and Jasper, this tour cannot fail to impress you with the thrilling magnificence of the Canadian Rockies.

Among the lovely mountain lakes along this route are the Bow Lakes, source of the Bow River, lying at the base of Mt. Rhondda, and Lake Hector for which Mt. Balfour with its great glacier, part of the Waputic Icefield, provides a spectacular background. High up in the Bow Pass, over 6,000 feet above sea level, you look out across a small, exquisite lake, Peyto Lake, and down the beautiful Mistaya Valley. As the valley widens, and you circle the Waterfowl Lakes, you may see deer, elk or moose.

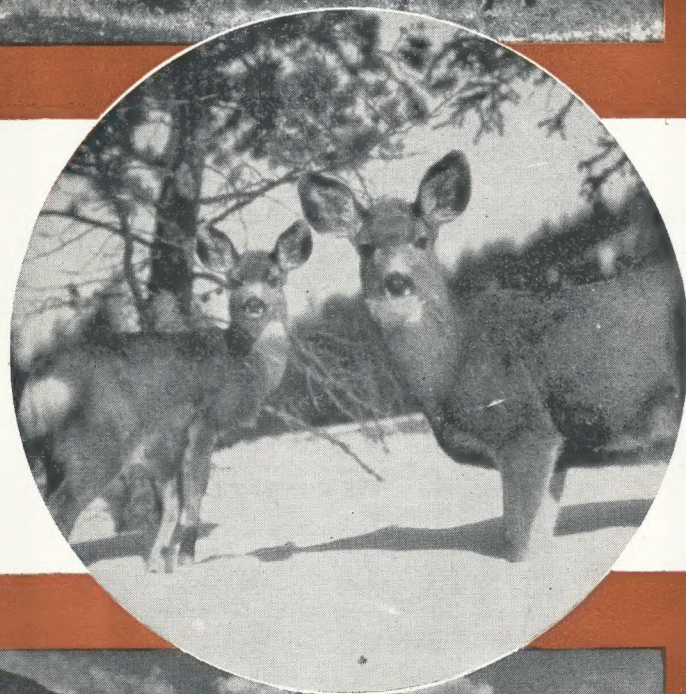

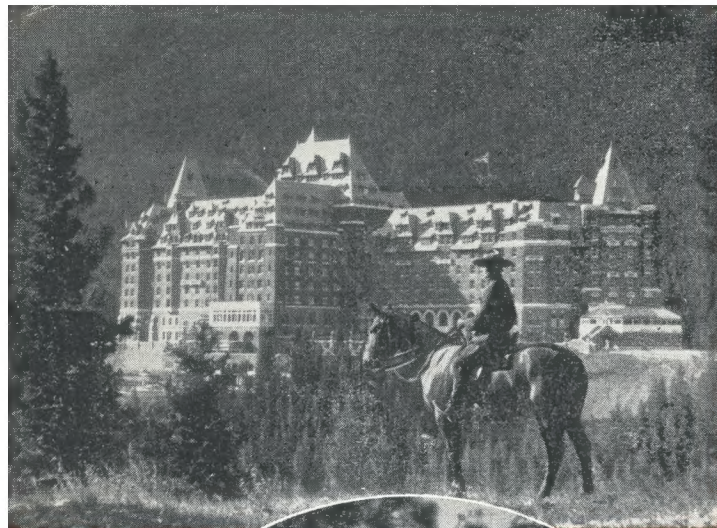

And then, flung out over the Roof of the Continent, among a galaxy of peaks that soar to heights of eleven and twelve thousand feet, lies the amazing field of ice, about 110 square miles in area and hundreds of feet deep. From the Columbia Ice Field streams flow thousands of miles to the Pacific, the Arctic and the Atlantic Oceans.

At the charming little Chalet that looks out over the huge Athabaska Glacier, part of the Columbia Icefield, the touring party stops for a delicious luncheon.

Those who make the return trip to Lake Louise will be delighted to discover that the change of direction transforms the scenery along the whole route so that you seem to be making a complete new tour.

Vacation in Nature's Wonderland !

RECREATION and SIGHT-SEEING . . .

In the heady mountain air and brilliant mountain sunshine you discover a new zest for every recreational activity. Brimming with energy in this invigorating climate, you will want to be "doing things." And there are plenty of things to do in the Canadian Rocky Mountain resorts.

SWIMMING

The Hot Sulphur Springs of Banff make swimming possible all the year round. At the Cave and Basin in the town of Banff there are two pools, one hot and one cool. At the Upper Hot Springs, a renowned health pool, the water is 112 degrees F.

CLIMBING

Everyone in the family can enjoy the thrills of mountain climbing. There are slopes that children may safely climb, climbs for beginners, and more difficult ascents that require the services of a Swiss guide.

The Alpine Club of Canada, with a thousand members from every corner of the globe, makes its headquarters in a handsome clubhouse on Sulphur Mountain near Banff.

RIDING

Explore the mountains on horseback! You can hire hardy, sure-footed, well-broken ponies to take you over the exciting mountain trails. This is the ideal way to ascend into the hidden country inaccessible by car or bus. Join the Trail Riders at Banff on one of their unique four-day rides, an experience enjoyed by people from every part of the globe.

SKIING

Banff is fast becoming as popular in the Winter as it is famous in the Summer. In this glorious setting of mountain grandeur National and International Ski events are held on the slopes and ski runs of Mt. Norquay. Mt. Norquay at Banff, with its Chair Lift and Sunshine, Skoki, Temple and Mt. Assiniboine are considered the premier ski districts on the Continent.

Top—Banff Springs Hotel; Centre—Bambi; Bottom—Banff Springs Golf Course.

GOLF

Just a few whiffs of clear mountain air and a quick glimpse of the championship courses at Banff or Jasper and the enthusiastic golfer will not rest until he gets out on the fairway with his clubs.

HIKING

At every resort in the Rockies you will find hiking trails into nature's deep solitudes, through forest and valley and along the mountainsides. At Banff the Sky Line Hikers establish a camp each summer from which they make excursions into all the neighboring vicinity.

FISHING AND HUNTING

In the cold mountain lakes and the rushing "white water" of the tumbling mountain streams trout fishermen find unexcelled sport. Wild life is protected inside the National Parks, but many hunting areas, where a hunter may bag his limit of moose, elk, sheep, goat, deer, grizzly and black bear, are easily accessible from both Jasper and Banff.

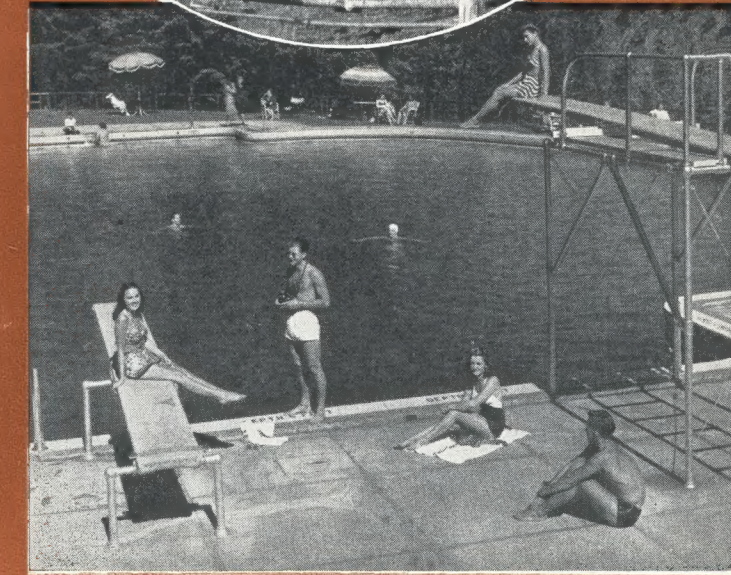

PHOTOGRAPHY

This is a country that simply cries out to be photographed. At every turn are wonderful opportunities to delight both amateur and professional photographer. Bring your camera. You'll use rolls and rolls of film!

SIGHTSEEING

And of course the important thing is to see this amazing Rocky Mountain region. Whether or not you are interested in any of these more strenuous types of recreation, you will want to spend hours and hours just looking. So arrange your sightseeing with Rocky Mountain Tours and be certain of itineraries that will take you to all the points of interest.

LAKE LOUISE

Against a backdrop of towering peaks crowned and engirdled by great glaciers lies a small quiet lake of brilliant emerald green — the celebrated Lake Louise. Set like a precious gem in the amphitheatre formed by the sheltering mountain peaks it is probably the most beautiful of all the Rocky Mountain Lakes.

Built close to the water's edge, amid green lawns and riotous bloom, the Chateau Lake Louise becomes an integral part of the idyllic scene.

Forming the constellation of peaks about the lake are Mt. Fairview, 9,011 feet, Haddo Peak, 10,083 feet, Mt. Lefroy, 11,280 feet, Mt. Victoria, 11,365 feet, and Mt. Whyte, 9,786 feet, with its buttress, the Beehive, to the right. Above Lake Louise, to the west of the Beehive are the Lakes of the Clouds, Lakes Mirror and Agnes. These are accessible from Lake Louise by a wide trail which zig-zags two and one-half miles, a climb of 1,200 feet, up the mountainside.

Long before white man ever saw this perfect little lake it was famous among the Indians who called it the Lake of the Little Fish, a never-fading painting, given them, they believed, by the Great Spirit. The first white man to visit it was Tom Wilson, the man who first discovered many now famous beauty spots of this region, and it was he who named it Lake Louise in honor of Princess Louise, daughter of Queen Victoria and wife of the Marquis of Lorne who was then Canada's Governor-General.

Only forty miles from Banff, Lake Louise is one of the truly wonderful sights of the Canadian Rockies.

MORaine LAKE AND THE VALLEY OF THE TEN PEAKS

As the tour between Lake Louise and Moraine Lake skirts Mt. Fairview and gradually ascends the side of Bow Valley, there open before your eyes glorious panoramas of the Bow Valley, the Banff-Lake Louise highway far below, and the rugged reaches of Mt. Hector, the Pipestone Range and Mt. Eisenhower.

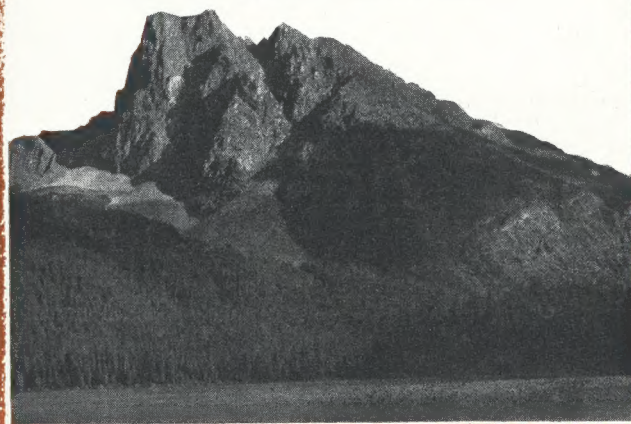

Then suddenly, as you circle Mt Temple and emerge from the deep forest to the steep, rocky slope, you come upon an incomparable spectacle. Ahead is the precipitous wall formed by the Ten Peaks, each over 10,000 feet high, and all outlined by a series of hanging glaciers, forming a segment of a great circle in which lies Moraine Lake. To the left of the Ten Peaks soars the Tower of Babel, and farther to the left is Consolation Valley above which Mt. Quadra and Bident rise dramatically

LAKE LOUISE TO EMERALD LAKE

This tour traverses a region of towering peaks and canyons, glaciers, forest, lakes and rivers, unfolding scene after scene of matchless beauty. You travel down the Kicking Horse Canyon, around the Lake Louise constellation and over the Great Divide. You see the remarkable Spiral Tunnel, the curious Natural Bridge, the marvelous Yoho Valley and the Takakkaw Falls, third highest in the world. No drive on the continent can boast of more spectacular and varied mountain scenery.

NOTE: Schedules for this tour are so arranged that both eastbound and westbound passengers may enjoy the drive without involving delay, eastbound passengers taking the tour on day of arrival at Field, and westbound passengers on the day of departure from Lake Louise.

Jasper

NATIONAL PARK

The northern section of the highway, between the Columbia Icefield and Jasper, runs through a region where the works of nature seem to have been wrought on an even grander scale. Here at times the mountains assume an almost ruthless magnificence. Through Jasper National Park you will see many of the finest peaks in the entire Rocky Mountain Range and in the picturesque alpine valleys are countless swiftly rushing streams and brilliant blue and emerald glacial lakes. Along this route you will come upon the noble peak of Mt. Edith Cavell, which rises to a height of 11,033 feet, and has clinging at its breast the famous "Angel Glacier." Rearing their mighty shoulders along either side of the valley are Mts. Frytt, Alberta, Kerkeslin, Hardisty and many others. You will stop to view the wild and turbulent beauty of the Sunwapta Falls and Canyon and the thrilling Athabasca Falls. Throughout the entire 4,200 square miles of this largest of Canada's National Parks emerges scene after scene of incredible beauty. Much of the history of the west was made in this region, for it was along the valley of the Athabaska that the fur traders brought their precious cargo. Into this area two great rival fur trading companies, who were largely responsible for opening up the west, brought their bitter battle for this lucrative trade.

The town of Jasper is located at the junction of the Miette and Athabaska Rivers. Radiating from the town are numerous motor tours operated by the Canadian National Railways from Jasper Park Lodge. For details of these tours communicate with any transportation agent in your locality. And if you plan a tour involving points in the Banff, Yoho or Kootenay Parks, request the joint service offered by the Rocky Mountain Tours.

Spring and Fall are Wonderful in the Mountains!

Because summer is the accepted vacation-time the mountain resorts are, of course, more popular during the summer months. But Banff and Jasper National Parks are year-round holiday resorts. In winter they are filled with winter-sports enthusiasts who find that mountains mantled in snow are quite as fascinating as they were in summer.

And imagine spring gently unfolding in this Rocky Mountain Range! Clear, blue skies, warm, golden sunshine, and fresh and playful breezes scudding clean, white clouds around the august mountain peaks! The Rockies are perfect for an early spring vacation.

Autumn, too, touches the mountains with new magic. Up here the foliage early turns to blazing orange, red and gold, splashing valley and mountainside with exotic color. Fall weather in the mountains is perfect; the days are warm and filled with sunshine, and the nights are crisp and cool. There is a spicy tang in the air that makes you glad to be alive. Spend your autumn vacation in the Canadian Rockies.
